Amundsen's Arctle Expedition Can't
Start Unless Equipped.
Washington, D. C., April 14 — Private reports from Christiania were received here to-night that Cantain Roald Amundsen, the Norwegian explorer, must have$200,000 before he can equip his proposed polar expedition. Expiorers and scientists here expressed the belief that it would be practically impossible to raise the required sum.
The reports from Christiania sald that Amundsen's ship, the Fram, after completing repairs at Montevideo, Uruguay, would sail for Norway, the plan being for her to leave there and pass through the Panama Canal to the Pacific coast early in 1915, provided $200,000 can be raised before that time.
The National Geographical Society
here recently decided to appropriate $20,000 for the Amundsen expedition.
According to announced plans, the expedition is scheduled to leave the Pacific $20,000 for the Anundsen expedition. According to announced plans, the expedition is scheduled to leave the Pacific coast next year, to explore the polar basin. The vast tract between Northern Canada, Alaska and Asia, including the North Pole, is contemplated to be traversed by the explorer, and it is expected that the voyage will require at least four years' work in the polar ice.

NO SATISFACTORY RESPONSE MADE

Decision to Send Battleships to Mexican Waters Is Reached After President and Secretary Bryan Confer With John Lind and Following Two-Hour Cabinet Meeting-Fighting Force to Make Demonstration Will Consist of Forty-Six Warships and 21,000 Men-High Administration Official Says "Future Developments Will Depend on Huerta Himself."

Washington, April 14 .-- President Wilson to-day ordered virtually the ters to force a public salute to the Stars and Stripes from the Huerta government as an apology for the arrest of American marines at Tampico last Thursday.

No ultimatum has been issuedthat is, no specified time has been set within which the Huerta governdemonstration has been ordered as a concrete evidence of the fixed determination of the United States to back up Rear-Admiral Mayo's demand for a salute. Up to to-night General Huerta had not made satisfactory response to that demand.

'Future developments depend on Huerta himself," was the way a high administration official, close to the President, summarized the situation. GRAVE SITUATION President, summarized the situation.
The decision to send the fleet was reached after the President and Secretary Bryan had conferred for an retary Bryan had conferred for an hour with John Lind, personal repre-sentative of the President in Mexico,
